Margaret Ann Acres Weds Const. Gerald Jamison

The marriage of Margaret Ann, daughter of Alderman and Mrs. S. Alex Acres, of Outremont, to Const. Gerald Thomas Jamison, R.C.M.P., son of the late I. W. Jamison, and of Mrs. Philippe Roy, of Lachute, Que., took place recently in the Church of the Ascension, Park Avenue, the Rev. G. R. Addie officiating, assisted by the Rev. Stanley Andrews, of St. Matthews Church. Mr. Arthur Hopkins played the wedding music and Mr. Stanley Waters sang during the signing of the register. White gladioli and pink peonies arranged with greenery were used to decorate.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was in a gown of Chantilly lace over satin appliqued in a clover leaf design, fashioned with a fitted bodice, having long sleeves, and a very full skirt. Her short veil of tulle illusion was held by a lace cap embroidered with seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. John D. Giles, as matron of honor for her sister, and Miss Marjory Acres, also a sister of the bride, and Mrs. E. S. Neff, of Barrie, Ont., as attendants, were in sheath frocks of silk organza with over skirts of crystal charm; Mrs. Giles being in rose, Miss Acres in honey gold and Mrs. Neff in creme de menthe. They wore hats to match their frocks and carried bouquets of multicolor sweetpeas.

Cpl. Richard Muir, R.C.M.P., of Ottawa, acted as best man for Const. Jamison, and the ushers were Const. Don Wilson, R.C.M.P., Const. E. A. Woods, R.C.M.P., of Ottawa, and Const. Yvon Vanasse, R.C.M.P., of Bathurst, N.B.

Mrs. Acres, the bride's mother, was in a gown of parma violet nylon over taffeta. She wore a white Milan straw hat and a corsage bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Roy, mother of the bridegroom, wore a sheath gown of blue printed silk, under a matching coat, and wearing a white picture hat and a corsage bouquet of white carnations.

The reception was held in the Blue Room of the Ritz-Carlton.

Later, Const. and Mrs. Jamison left for Bathurst, N.B., the bride travelling in an ensemble of blue linen, and wearing white accessories and a corsage bouquet of white carnations.
